The Pastors' Notes

Reformation Sunday

The last four Sundays of the Church Year are designated in our lectionary (scheduled Scripture readings) as the season of End Time. While we live in the last age of this earth, Jesus wants us to remember his promise, "Behold, I am coming soon!" As the Church waits to see Jesus again, we ask the Lord to help keep us ready.

Today, Reformation Sunday, we ask: Lord, keep us faithful to the Word! During the period of the Reformation, the Lord worked through faithful men and women to return people back to his Word. From there, they taught true answers about sin and grace and about believers' lives now. Our readings today encourage us to do the same, reminding us of the faithful Lord we see in that Word.

The cover page depicts "Luther's Seal." Martin Luther was a large part of the Reformation of the Church more than 500 years ago. He has contributed numerous writings, hymns, and art to the Christian Church while seeking to remain faithful to God's Word. "Luther's Seal" was designed by Martin Luther to represent the Christian faith. The cross in the middle represents the center of our faith—Christ crucified for us. It is inside a heart because we believe in Christ. The heart is in a white rose—our faith gives us joy and peace. The rose is set over a blue background. This represents that our faith is yearning for the heavenly joy to come. Finally, it is all surrounded by a gold ring which signifies our endless bliss in heaven.

Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary,
and became fully human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

SECOND LESSON Galatians 5:1-6

It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not allow anyone to put the yoke of slavery on you again. <sup>2</sup> Look, I, Paul, tell you that if you allow yourselves to be circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you. <sup>3</sup> I testify again to every man who allows himself to be circumcised that he is obligated to do the whole law. <sup>4</sup> You who are trying to be declared righteous by the law are completely separated from Christ. You have fallen from grace.

<sup>5</sup> Indeed, through the Spirit, we by faith are eagerly waiting for the sure hope of righteousness. <sup>6</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision matters. Rather, it is faith working through love that matters.

VERSE OF THE DAY

Alleluia. If you continue in my Word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free. Alleluia. (John 8:31-32 cf. RSV)

GOSPEL Matthew 10:16-23

C: (spoken) Glory be to you, O Lord!

Look, I am sending you out as sheep among wolves. So be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves. <sup>17</sup> Be on guard against people. They will hand you over to councils, and they will whip you in their synagogues. <sup>18</sup> You will be brought into the presence of governors and kings for my sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. <sup>19</sup> Whenever they hand you over, do not be worried about how you will respond or what you will say, because what you say will be given to you in that hour. <sup>20</sup> In fact you will not be the ones speaking, but the Spirit of your Father will be speaking through you.

<sup>21</sup> “Brother will hand over his brother to death, and a father will do the same with his child. Children will rise up against parents and have them put to death. <sup>22</sup> You will be hated by all people because of my name, but whoever endures to the end will be saved. <sup>23</sup> And when they persecute you in one town, flee to the next. Amen I tell you: You will not finish going through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

C: (spoken) Praise be to you, O Christ!

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.

CONFESSION OF SINS

M: Beloved in the Lord: let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins to God our Father, asking him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

LORD, HAVE MERCY

Kyrie

C: (spoken) Lord, have mercy on us. Christ, have mercy on us. Lord, have mercy on us. Amen.

M: God, our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (+) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: (spoken) Amen.

THE WORD

FIRST LESSON Daniel 6:10-12, 16-23

<sup>10</sup> Now, when Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went to his house. It had windows on its upper story that opened toward Jerusalem. Three times each day he would get on his knees and pray and offer praise before his God. He continued to do that, just as he had been doing before this. <sup>11</sup> Then these men came as a group and found Daniel praying and seeking favor from his God.

<sup>12</sup> They then went and asked the king about the decree. “Your Majesty, did you not sign a decree that anyone who prays to any god or person for thirty days except to you, Your Majesty, would be thrown into the den of lions?”

The king answered, “Indeed I did. The order is established as a law of the Medes and the Persians that cannot be revoked.”

<sup>16</sup> Then the king gave the order, and Daniel was brought and thrown into the lions’ den. The king said to Daniel, “May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you.” <sup>17</sup> A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the pit. The king sealed it with his signet ring and the signet rings of his nobles so that nothing could be changed with regard to Daniel’s situation. <sup>18</sup> Then the king went to his palace. He spent the night without food, and no entertainment was brought before him. But he could not sleep.

<sup>19</sup> At dawn the king arose as soon as it was light and hurried to the lions’ den. <sup>20</sup> As he came near the pit, he cried out in a fearful voice. The king said to Daniel, “Daniel, servant of the living God, was your God, whom you serve continually, able to rescue you from the lions?”

<sup>21</sup> Then Daniel spoke with the king. “Your Majesty, may you live forever! <sup>22</sup> My God sent his angel and shut the mouth of the lions. They have not hurt me because he found me innocent in his presence. Also before you, Your Majesty, I have committed no crime.”

<sup>23</sup> Then the king was very glad and said that Daniel should be brought up from the pit. So Daniel was brought up from the pit, and he was unharmed because he trusted in his God.

The Lord be with you.
